

come here the latter part of next month I stay three weeks. Wish I go to Ohio, where I have engaged to attend a convention Sept. 1. He can also come when I go to Massachusetts for a brief campaign. Think of that.

Our abolitionists in this city & in N. Jersey are gradually but resolutely abandoning their party predilections, & will vote for Simon Fessenden - i.e. if we get good nominations for the state.

What I propose to prepare, is a Harrison tract of about 32 pages 32 mo.
- a vest-pocket affair. It will of course be very condensed, & I shall try to make it pretty keen. It will appear in the Even. of Aug. 7, together with sundry other matters calculated for the opening of the campaign - Yours truly

Dear Brothers Phillips & May

Yours of the 24th, signed C. P., is duly received. I believe the times are more & more favorable for our movement, but I am not of patience with Jackson Whittier's ^{Whittier's} ~~ship's~~ ^{unwillingness} in declining. You must fill the vacancies with the best men you can get & men that will stand & show an unquestionably worthy. I shall endeavor to leave myself at your service in the month of October - reserving a chance to vote in N. York the 2^d Sunday in Oct. provided. I can make satisfactory arrangements for the conduct of the Encom.
I do not want any money, except my expenses, & what I have to pay out.

Why not meet the difficulty in this way?
The Agent for Anti Slavery. Abol. in the States is now revived by the voluntary withdrawal of W. L. G. from the general ranks of Anti Slavery. Now is a good time, therefore to relieve yourselves of the expense of its support - I put it on that ground.

Place your subscription list into the Encom. We will give you as liberal terms as we can afford - we cannot afford to lose any thing by it. Now Dr. Phillips can
